

Andover Advertiser

Rosie is top gran

6:40pm Sunday 24th June 2012 in News

A GRANDMOTHER from Longparish has been voted Granny of the Month by Grannynet, the communitybased website.

Rosie Lowry, 62, received the accolade which sees grannies from all over the country being nominated by family and friends each month, leading up to one very special grandmother being awarded the title Grannynet and Infacol's Granny of the Year in April 2013.

Rosie was nominated by her daughter Joanna, who says her amazing mum has devoted her life to her four children and now spends time looking after her two grand-children, Jake, aged 18, and Humphrey, 18 months.

Joanna said: "Mum is at the heart of the community and is always helping someone."

Rosie said: "I feel extremely lucky to have both my grandsons grow up near us and it's wonderful to have one grown up and one baby grandson to have fun with."